Death Kaith Black, Esquire . . . .
... one of my hobbies is to surround myself with people who find enough room in their hearts for others. People who realize that it's all about health, family and warm-to-the-touch friends. People who put people first. People who make time to adjust their inner voice just below the surface to consider the situation one may be experiencing and taking a priority to absorb that discomfort or joy as if it was their own.
People who value the need to be spiritual in nature.
People whose three sides to their personality or persona are all in the proper tenet of behavior. To me, you are all of the above.

You've adopted my parents' needs as if they are your own. On behalf of my family thank you, thank you and thank you from the bottom of our hearts,

...With Sincere Appreciation.

Please understand that I hope you can consider me a friend and pray that you consider me as worthy, as well.

Truly,
D. Frank
